Retreat Descriptions

For You alone my soul waits in silence. (Psalm 62:1)

Silence is that place just before the voice of God. It is the void in which God and I meet in the center of my soul. It is the cave through which the soul must travel, clearing out the dissonance of life as we go, so that God who is waiting there for us to notice can fill us.

(Joan Chittister OSB—Illuminated Life)

We deeply respect silence in order to provide an atmosphere of reverence for each retreatant's encounter with God. Silence is observed throughout the house on all five-, six-, and eight-day directed and guided retreats, day and night, including meals.

A directed retreat is a one-on-one experience. A director meets with the retreatant each day to reflect on the interior movements of the retreatant's prayer and to discern with the retreatant the presence of the Spirit. The only communal gathering is the Liturgy of the Eucharist. It is suggested that one have some knowledge and experience of a shorter silent directed retreat prior to participation in an extended directed retreat. Requests for a particular director are honored as far as possible.

A guided retreat is based on a theme and may have one or several directors who provide daily input to the group. Considerable time for personal prayer is included. While silence is usually observed, there may be some time for sharing. Liturgy of the Eucharist is celebrated daily. Some guided retreats include occasional times for private interviews with the director.

Retreats

A Centering Prayer Retreat for those in the 12 Step Programs

June 6 - 9

Patty Creech, Rita Woehlcke SSJ

“The practice of Centering Prayer has parallels with other traditional practices and is simple and easy to do. For those who live by the 12 Steps found in AA, Al-Anon, SCA, OA, DA, NA, GA, and other programs, a Centering Prayer practice can be a key support system in the process of recovery and transformation. Centering Prayer can help deepen our application of the 12 Steps generally, and the 11th Step specifically, through daily immersion in prayer and meditation. We believe that, when applied as a daily supplement to the 12 Steps, Centering Prayer opens us to the deepest dimension of spirituality.” For more information, please see www.12stepoutreach.com.

This retreat is predominantly silent (including meals). The fellowship occurs in the sharing of silent prayer and the evening 12 Step meetings.

Guided Retreats

See page 5 for description of a Guided Retreat

Living In Times of Transition

July 1 – July 8 (Six days)

Rev. Anthony Ciorra

This guided retreat will reinforce the fact that we enter the process of dying and rising from the day of our Baptism forward. We live in a graced moment, a time in which God is calling us to embrace the mission of transitions in our personal lives, religious communities, the Church, the world, even in the universe itself.

We are challenged to “above all trust in the slow work of God and believe that only God could say what this new spirit gradually emerging will be” (Teilhard de Chardin). We are called to a radical faith in the twenty-first century where God seems to be “making all things new.” This retreat will paint the picture and offer a pathway into embracing a spirituality of transition.

“See I am doing something new!” Meeting God in an Evolving World

July 28 – August 4 (Six days)

Gloria Schaab SSJ

The revelation of God through creation is inseparable from divine revelation in Scripture and in Jesus Christ. Everything is full of sacred presence; everything has the capacity to reveal the Divine. In dialogue with human experience, this retreat delves into the dynamics of an evolving world and explores how these dynamics may broaden and deepen our vision of and relationship with the Living God. Plumbing the reality that all is in relation, we explore cosmic creativity, emergent novelty, and strange attractors through word, song and silence and enter into the mystery of our Triune God who promises, “See I am doing something new!”

Donation: $570 (SSJ Phila: $540)

Many Voices Made of Longing

August 22 – August 29 (Six days)

Chris Koellhoffer IHM

The poet Rilke reminds us that our blood is alive with many voices telling us we are made of longing. Sometimes those voices speak in a soft whisper; sometimes an insistent shout. Always their call is to a profound listening, so we might mine the divine desire for us as well as our own collective ache for communion and belonging. Where are we being called to a deeper resonance with the wounds and hopes of our time? How might we more fully serve as fields of healing presence for our beautiful yet wounded world?

This silent, guided retreat will offer prayer, presentations, the arts, material for reflection, and times of stillness and sharing. Please bring a Bible, a journal and your listening heart.

Donation: $570 (SSJ Phila: $540)

Non-refundable Deposit: $50 (SSJ Phila: $0)

General Information

Our beloved Victorian-era beachfront retreat house is, in spite of significant recent improvements, physically inconvenient in many ways. Saint Mary by-the-Sea's historic structure does not provide a safe environment for persons with limited mobility. If you are not physically able, Saint Mary is most likely not a good place for your retreat. Please be aware that no health services are available on site. The nearest hospital is 14 miles away.

We are not able, for safety reasons, to accommodate persons who use wheelchairs, walkers, or mobility aids, such as scooters and other power-driven mobility devices for any of our programs or retreats.

Elevator:

We have a small elevator that will help get luggage to the upper floors. It will assist those who have trouble with stairs, and it will enable them to sit on our second-floor porches and enjoy the ocean view. This one small elevator, however, does not make our facility handicap-accessible. To have a bedroom on the second floor, you must be sufficiently agile to manage one flight of stairs in case of an emergency or elevator failure.

If you cannot manage at least one flight of stairs, please request a first-floor room.
