

Saint Mary by-the-Sea

Saint Mary by-the-Sea was purchased by the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Philadelphia in 1909 as a retreat house for their Sisters.

Saint Mary has been a place of prayer and reflection for over 100 years. Having retained its rustic simplicity, Saint Mary's mirrors the beauty that surrounds it.

In keeping with the mission of this retreat house and the Sisters of St. Joseph, we now offer you the opportunity to share this marvelous space with us.

Saint Mary by-the-Sea Retreat House

HOSTED PROGRAMS

Saint Mary by-the-Sea, Cape May Point, New Jersey, is a retreat house sponsored by the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Philadelphia.

Day and Overnight Programs

Saint Mary-by-the Sea welcomes faith-based and non-profit groups to use our ocean-front retreat house for day and overnight programs. The location, at the southern most point of New Jersey, is ideal for retreats, morning/days of reflection, and other programs that would value our serene and inspiring location.

The campus of Saint Mary includes two smaller houses across the street from the larger main house. In June, September, and October, day and weekend programs can be hosted in the main house for groups as large as 80. Year-round, groups of 20 or fewer can be hosted in Queen of the Sea, and even smaller groups in Saint Joseph House.
